

Anthony J. Borrell, Jr.

President

Borrell Family Foundation

Anthony J. Borrell, Jr. was born and raised in Tampa. His mother's family settled here in 1895, and his father, at the young age of eleven, moved here in 1928 from Cuba.

A trustee at The University of Tampa for over sixteen years, Anthony is a retired construction person in the firm his father founded. He has served on bank, Credit Company, insurance company, state licensing and several not-for-profit boards.

Currently, he is President for the Borrell Family Foundation, which has established two UT scholarships and supported many other causes. Anthony is also a contributing member of the UT Athletic Hall of Fame and a member of the Trustee Athletic Committee.
