

Photo/Video Policy

Version:1

Effective Date 6/15/2010

Policy Summary:

The photo/video policy gives University of Tampa representatives the right to photograph or videotape UT community members while they are in public spaces on campus without their consent, and to use those photographs and video as needed in all marketing functions. UT representatives may require community members sign release forms for particular photo/video shoots, however, that is not mandatory for all photo and video projects on campus.
